

Employee Learning and Development Plan Guide

Not all required trainings are offered in PageUp Learning. Please check the learning and trainings page for details. For the department-specific required trainings, contact your supervisor for more information.

The PageUp Learning portal not only provides training to employees it also supports employees' individual professional development plans. It captures learning activities an employee has taken, or is taking, and the employee can share and showcase their professional accomplishments and aspirations with their supervisor.

Comparing Argos, Tableau, and PowerBI

Comparing Argos, Tableau, & PowerBI

Andy Samuel
Office of Institutional Effectiveness

Wrapping up our series of reporting tools, this session examines how differently Argos, PowerBI, and Tableau perform when doing the same task. Seeing how the different tools behave will allow users to better understand their strengths and weaknesses.
